

| Key points                                            | Old procedure                                      | New procedure                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Reasons for changes                                                                                                                                                               |
|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Formal type of procedure                    | Informal and formal phase                          | Whole procedure is formal                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Legal and scientific reliability for the whole procedure                                                                                                                          |
| 2. Layers of the procedure                     | 2 layers: preliminary evaluation and investigation | 1 layer: investigation                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Every notification is completed with a final and formal resultReduction of duration(Flexible procedure)                                                                   |
| 3. Type of committee                           | Ad hoc committee                            | Standing committee and supporting office                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Improvement of qualityProfessionalisationProcedural justiceReduction of duration                                                                                      |
| 4. Separation of conflicts and rule violations | No separation                                      | Only integrity violations are treated by the procedure                                                                                                                                                                                       | Conflicts cannot be solved by investigations.Violations cannot be treated by arbitration.                                                                                     |
| 5. Definition of violations                    | Special ETH Zurich definitions                     | Codex of Swiss Academies                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Compatibility with the swiss scientific communityExternal requirement by government                                                                                           |
| 6. Transparency and confidentiality            | Hardly addressed                                   | Procedure is generally transparent.Access to information is addressed in detail.                                                                                                                                                         | Transparency improves the quality and the trustworthiness of the procedure.                                                                                                       |
| 7. Allocation of decision-making power         | The Executive Board have made all decisions        | Integrity-Commission:- Starting investigation- Judgement about the allegation- Imposes scientific measures- CommunicationPanel of the Executive Board:Initiation of organisational and HR-measures | The Executive Board has a conflict of interest.Unnecessary involvement of the Executive Board endangers the independence of the procedure.Avoiding unnecessary escalation |